LifeChurch Birmingham Membership Covenant

1. I will protect the unity of my church...

- By acting in love toward others
- By refusing to gossip
- By following the leadership

How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity! (Psalms 133:1)

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had. (Romans 15:5)

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart. (1 Peter 1:22)

Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. (Ephesians 4:29)

Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you. (Hebrews 13:17)

2. I will share in the responsibility of my church...

- By praying for its growth and impact.
- By inviting the unchurched to attend
- By warmly welcoming those who visit

We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers. (1 Thessalonians 1:2)

Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. (Romans 15:7)

"Then the master told his servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. (Luke 14:23)

3. I will share in the ministry of my church...

- By discovering my gifts and talents
- By being equipped to serve beside my pastors
- By developing a servant's heart

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. (1 Peter 4:10)

¹¹So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹² to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up. (Ephesians 4:11-12)

³ Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, ⁴ not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.
rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. (Philippians 2:3-4, 7)

4. I will support the testimony of my church...

- By attending church and small groups faithfully
- By living a Godly life
- By giving regularly of my tithes and offerings

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. (Acts 2:42)

(Let Us)... not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:25)

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel. (Philippians 1:27)

On every Lord's Day each of you should put aside something from what you have earned during the week, and use it for this offering. The amount depends on how much the Lord has helped you earn. Don't wait until I get there and then try to collect it all at once. (1 Cor. 16:2 LB)

A tithe (tenth) of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the Lord; it is holy to the Lord. (Leviticus 27:30)
